Rules & Regulations

The Britt Hobo Days Association (BHDA) and the City of Britt assume no risk and shall not be responsible for any damage, injury, loss, legal action, or expenses that may arise. Vendors understand that they should carry business/personal liability insurance.

The BHDA reserves the right to cancel any or all future reservations made by an exhibitor acting in any manner deemed to be inappropriate.

No refunds for cancellations after July 1, 2023.

Trailers or vehicles may remain in the market site only if there is room for them behind your display without extending into the street. Purchasing a space just for your vehicle will not be allowed nor will using your vehicle as a sales display. Sites must be vacated by midnight on Saturday.

Pets must be kept on a leash at all times. Their tie out leash must not extend into another person's space. Excessive pet noise will not be permitted and pet waste are the responsibility of the owner.

Please keep your spaces clean. Garbage containers are available throughout the area. Your space should be as clean when you leave as when you arrived. Large packing boxes and bags of garbage are not to be put in the garbage cans situated along the market route. Please dispose of large items in the Dumpsters.

Vendors may not sell any of the following items: guns - real or toy; knives - hunting, recreational, antique, kitchen, or toy; stink bombs or spray; or snaps.
